Prayer
of St. Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace.
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
where there is injury, pardon;
where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
to be understood as to understand;
to be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive;
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life. Amen

PLEASE NOTE:

Farewell:

Long time parishioners of St. Joseph Catholic Parish, Richard and Billie Blind have moved to Duluth, Georgia to live in a retirement center so they will be close to family members. Fr. Paul, on Wednesday, July 27, thanked them for their many years of service to our parish at the morning Mass. May God be with them.

Good Neighbor Cupboard:

Please remember our food donation box in the church vestibule when you shop for your groceries. As many of you may know the local food pantry, the Good Neighbor Cupboard , has had some lean times recently. They had to turn away people in need because their shelves were bare. The Good Neighbor Cupboard and the people they serve depend upon our donations.

A letter from our Bishop...

August 2011

Dear People of God,

Once again , the diocese requests your support for the "Acquisition of Land Collection" for new land purchases for parishes in the Diocese of Charleston.

There is need to purchase land in various areas of the Diocese. This land is most important for our commitment to evangelization, to transforming ourselves and the world in which we live, to deepening our conversion to discipleship and stewardship. The timing is such that this is a very good time to purchase.

I continue to thank God for your dedicated efforts and ask God to bless you as we continue to do God's work in the Church of Charleston.

With assurance of my prayers for you, and with appreciation of your prayers for me, as well, I am,

In the Lords' Peace,

Robert E. Guglielmo
