Church Will Be Open 9/16 For Private Prayer.

Music and Gloria for Masses of Sunday, September 13, 2020 The 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn: Praise To The Lord

1 – Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the Kin of creation! O my soul praise him, for he is your health and salvation! All you who hear, now to his temple draw near. Praise him in glad adoration!

2 – Praise to the Lord, who will prosper your work and defend you. Surely his goodness and mercy shall daily attend you. Ponder anew, what the Almighty can do, who with his love does befriend you.

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

Offertory Hymn: We Gather Together

1 – We gather together to ask the Lord's blessing; He chastens and hastens his will to make known; the wicked oppressing now cease from distressing. Sing praises to his name; he forgets not his own.

2 – We all do extol you our leader triumphant and pray that you still our defender will be. Let your congregation escape tribulation. Your name be ever praised! O Lord make us free!

Communion Hymn: Make Me A Channel Of Your Peace

1 – Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon Lord, and where there's doubt true faith in you.

2 – Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness, only light, and where there's sadness, ever joy.

3 – Oh, Master grant that I may never seek, so much to be consoled as to console. To be understood as to understand, to be loved as to love with all my soul.

4 – Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Recessional Hymn: Now Thank We All Our God

1 - Now thank we all our God, with hearts and hands and voices. Who wondrous things has done, in whom his world rejoices. Who from our mothers' arms, has blessed us on our way. With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

2 – All praise and thanks to God, the Father now be given. The Son, and him who reigns with them in highest heaven. The one eternal God. Whom earth and heaven adore; for thus it was, is now, and shall be evermore.

Pastor's Corner

The Epistle of Barnabas a Greek epistle written between AD 70 and 132. The complete text is preserved in the 4th-century Codex Sinaiticus, where it appears immediately after the New Testament and before the Shepherd of Hermas. For several centuries it was one of the writings that some Christians looked on as sacred scripture, while others excluded them. Some early Fathers of the Church ascribed it to the Barnabas who is mentioned in the Acts of the Apostles, but it is now generally attributed to an otherwise unknown early Christian teacher. It is not from the Gospel of Barnabas.

The Way of Light

Consider now the way of light; any man who is bent on reaching his appointed goal must be very careful in all he does. Now these are the directions that have been given to us for this journey: love your Creator; reverence your Maker; give glory to him who redeemed you when you were dead; be single-minded but rich in spiritual treasure; avoid those who travel down death's highway; hate whatever is displeasing to God; detest all hypocritical pretense; do not abandon God's commandments. Do not put on airs, but be modest whatever you do; claim no credit for yourself. Plot no evil against your neighbor, and do not give pride an entrance into your heart.

Love your neighbor more than your own life. Do not kill an unborn child through abortion, nor destroy it after birth. Do not refrain from chastising son or daughter, but bring them up from childhood in the fear of the Lord. Do not set your heart on what belongs to your neighbor and do not give in to greed. Do not associate with the arrogant but cultivate those who are humble and virtuous.

Accept as a blessing whatever comes your way in the knowledge that nothing ever happens without God's concurrence. Avoid duplicity in thought or in word, for such deception is a deadly snare.

Share with your neighbor whatever you have, and do not say of anything, this is mine. If you both share an imperishable treasure, how much more must you share what is perishable. Do not be hasty in speech; the mouth is a deadly snare. For your soul's good, make every effort to live chastely. Do not hold out your hand for what you can get, only to withdraw it when it comes to giving. Cherish as the apple of your eye anyone who speaks to you of the word of the Lord.

Night and day you will bear in mind the hour of judgment; every day you will seek out the company of God's faithful, either by preaching the word, earnestly exhorting them, ever considering how you can save souls by your eloquence, or else by working with your hands to make reparation for your past sins.

Never hesitate to give, and when you do give, never grumble; then you will know the one who will repay you. Preserve the traditions you have received, adding nothing and taking nothing away. The evildoer will ever be hateful to you. Be fair in your judgments. Never stir dissension, but act as peacemaker and reconcile the quarrelsome. Confess your sins, and do not begin to pray with a guilty conscience.

Such then is the way of light.

An influential teacher, a distinguished theologian, a man who endured many trials, a father of souls—Blessed John Henry Newman (1801 - 1890) remains as fresh and relevant today as he was during his lifetime. In this engaging film, Fr. Nicholas Schofield and Fr. Marcus Holden, hosts of several other Ignatius films, present the inspiring story of Newman's life and visit the places in England where he lived and worked.
